TECH TIPS

EQUIPMENT

Pest control is labor intensive and as the old adage goes: time is money. Finding and using the right equipment for the job that will be the most reliable and efficient for you and your team can have a big impact on your profitability. If you struggle to figure out what pest control equipment you should be investing in, then we have an opportunity for you.

Join us this spring to find out what's new and what's hot with equipment. We will have the latest equipment on hand from B&G, Birchmeier and Flowzone at select service center locations. Ensure your equipment is well-functioning and ready when you need it. Come out and see and feel the latest equipment the industry has to offer. Speak with the manufacturer sales representatives as well as Target sales reps to learn more about the latest equipment offerings and what selections are right for your business needs.

CLICK HERE to learn more about our Equipment Counter Day times and locations or contact your local Target Specialty Products representative.
